

German Institute of Development and Sustainability (IDOS)

Research institute and Think Tank for Development and Sustainability founded in 1964 as the German Development Institute (DIE);

renamed in 2022

independent research, science-based policy advice & postgraduate training on sustainable development for a climate-stabilising & socially just futures;

on international cooperation in a multipolar world

publicly funded by the Federal Republic of Germany, the State of NRW and third-party funds from various science donors supervised by a Board of Trustees and advised by an International Scientific Advisory Board

Our fields of research:

- Inter- and Transnational Cooperation
- Transformation of Economic and Social Systems
- Environmental Governance
- Transformation of Political Order and Disorder

Our training programmes:

- Postgraduate Programme (PGP)
- Managing Global Governance (MGG)
- Shaping Futures - African-European Network on Development and Sustainability

→ Stay up to date with our newsletter.

Further information:
www.idos-research.de

60 YEARS

IDOS

